

PACK GOAT Scorecard

1. STRUCTURAL CORRECTNESS- 40 points

Structural correctness includes a wide chest and brisket.- 11 points

Heart girth should not tend to increase greatly to the barrel

Length of body in proportion to height

Front cannon bone and fore leg should be approximately the same length.- 7 points

Width of leg should be proportionate to thickness of body. Angularity in the rear, not post legged, hockiness a plus.

Back vertebrae parallel to the ground and open withers, strong chine and loin- 8 points

Strong pasterns, perpendicular to the ground.- 7 points

Strong feet with tight toes

Elbows do not wing out when on the move.- 7 points

Strong, easy and smooth gait with no lameness or stiffness.

2. MUSCULARITY- 30 points

Includes stocky body – “working” goat in appearance not dairy type. 10

Thigh and gaskin muscle well defined. 10

Shoulders, and neck show good muscle tone 10

3. ATTITUDE- 20 points

The pack shall show a “pet quality” attitude. Friendly and willing to work.

4. COORDINATION- 10 points

The test will include an obstacle selected by the judge that the goat will go across.

5. PACK GOAT TRAIL TEST- 30 points

Appropriately fitted goat pack containing 10% weight or less for under one year of age, and 10% and not more than 20% of weight for over one year of age. Lead equipment should consist of working collar or halter. The ten essentials of hiking will be carried on the person in a fanny pack, back pack or vest. 5 points

The trail test shall consist of five obstacles 25 points

TOTAL POINTS FOR TYPE 130